Mr Albion W. Tourgee;
Mayville N. Y.;

Dear Sir:—

I am an admirer of the "Bystander's Notes". I have carefully read them all—have cut them out of the Inter-Ocean—have filed them in the order of issue—and consider them a part of my library.

Because I am an admirer, I am going to presume upon your good nature—by asking you to drop for the timebeing the tariffic and other subjects you handle in such a masterly manner—and ask you to give us your views on the question of the liquor traffic for beverage purposes—its legalization—regulation—curtailment and total suppression.

I have no doubt that a very large proportion of D.-O. readers will enjoy and appreciate any articles from your pen on these subjects, which you may be pleased to favor them with.

Respectfully;
