Dear Mrs Longée,

I have received your pretty "Green of Heart" book, and, faithful as a desk full of stuff awaiting attention, have gone "mooning" along from page to page until I reached the lavelled "End". There is more of it, since I read it in the magazine, and it is richer, too; and miscellaneous pastoral fancies help to maintain the out door atmosphere that makes the little narrative restful and refreshing.

Many thanks for it. My best regards to the Judge and the Damozel.

Sincerely Yours,
R. H. Howard
