DICTATED BY

Dear Miss Tonjes

THE ILLUSTRATED EXPRESS will use your contribution entitled Tom to Plantations ---------- in its issue of Oct 24

Please observe the following:

The continued growth of The Illustrated Express has so extended our territory and increased the number of contributors, that it becomes necessary to request them all, regular correspondents, old and new contributors alike, to observe the following simple rule, in their own interests:

Send to The Express, on the first of each month, slips, cut from The Express, of all your contributions for the preceding month, with the address to which check should be sent.

According to the showing of these slips, payment checks will be made out. We cannot undertake to keep track of each one's matter, nor will we be held liable for contributions unless the writer presents the printed slip of his work exactly as above required. The Express pays good newspaper rates and successful contributors have the satisfaction of knowing that their work reaches the largest and best class of readers of any paper in the United States or Canada, a few great city Journals excepted. We are pleased at all times to receive your contributions and guarantee careful consideration of all.
