My dear Judge:

I always read "Bystander's Notes" as you know, with a great deal of interest & much satisfaction. but indeed I read with sorrow your letter on the politics of your state. In my humble opinion that letter will help Hill greatly. The Inter-Ocean goes to N.Y. & you mark my word that article will be used & have its influence for evil, to a moral certainty.

My respects to your good wife.

Faithfully
