Judge Sawyer

Our Free Public Library Building for which you were invited to lay the Corner Stone is now almost completed & our Library is well patronized & our Reading Rooms & we begin to feel somewhat repaid for our Many Sacrifices & labors for this building is the work entirely of our Ladies Library Society. We have held Fairs - Strawberry Festivals - even dried beef & to raise Money little by little for this good work - & we feel gratified to see the young men & boys who formerly hung around saloons & street loafing now flock to our Rooms & quietly read good book. Our Library Club last winter held a few evening sessions & invited the Public - / usually our meetings are afternoon & only for our members / but we held a few and invited some talent to address us & the Public - Boy Cairey on teache Judge Ward & others - some of our ladies are also on the Program for short articles. as we wish to show outsiders what we are doing. and this winter I am hoping to have three open session or meetings one each month & free to the Public. Next week. Boy Sleeman from Angelica Academy gives us an address upon "What to read" - and after all these preliminaries I must & ask you to join us one evening this winter — any date most convenient for you some day with us — bring Mrs Grover or any members of your family. We are very proud of our Library building & we would be happy to show it & would be happy to entertain you at our home — With regards from the Judge & hoping to hear from from you I am
