Dear Mr Tougée

My absence from home for a few days has prevented an earlier acknowledgment of the beautiful copy of "An Outing with the Queen of Hearts" recently received from you.

I thank you sincerely for your kind remembrance and shall read it with the greater pleasure because it is a merited tribute to the one whose devotion self sacrifice and patient endurance has made possible the work so ably done by ~~her~~ the author.

I hope you will pardon this personal allusion and believe me

Sincerely Yours

E. A. Skinner
