Judge Gouge.

It was with unfeigned regret that we read your adieu to the readers of the Inter Ocean. Should you become a regular contributor to any other periodical please request the publishers to send us a copy. We hope that we have read the most of your books & have taken the Inter Ocean for several years, would be glad to receive you as long as you write for the public. I trust nothing will prevent your doing so.

Sincerely your friends & well wishers

Wm & E. J. Partridge
