My dear Judge

Tom plan is not a bad one & I will do with the two extra as Tom suggest. Ramsdell & Alexander are away, Warren is dis affected & Most makes no response. The 2 former remain uninvited but is very busy. It is evident that we cannot get together this week. On Saty or Sunday or both I will are on friends a big for an early day next week.

I hope that you are not annoyed with Howe for not quite seeing things as you do.

You understand publishing & we do not.

The experience of every business man is that schemes which look the most certain turn out the most disasterous. Ramsdell said to me — "All that the Judge thinks may be true but I don't know anything of printing or journals or, so far as I am concerned, it would be a simple gamble."

I have talked to several people & the standing excuse was given me — "I'm tied up in money matters just now."

I hear that not the-same thing. You can say anything so clearly that you wonder at others failing so to do.

We all feel the same about a few projects that we have studied out. It is quite natural

I for instance cannot see how a credit of $2500 from the Endowment Assn is capital. It is a debt that the Co. must pay.

The Mr. Gerald's proposition is different. as I understand

They propose to put in no cash, but to furnish paper with a basis as it is wanted.

I have no more money until July and the $1000. that I am ready to put in I should have to get from the Bank.

$2500. just now would be impossible. I do not think it safe to start with less than $10,000. or I think that $20,000. would be much safer.

I have had some severe lessons. Now do not be annoyed my dear Judge for you & I are not at one upon all points, and if you ═══ are to think hard of me if I disagree with you — fail to see things in your light — I shall mourn that we ever talked business. Because I don't see my way to putting $2500 or $5000 into a scheme which is blind to me, don't accuse me of "flunking" "backing" "crabbing" — please don't.

You are not a business man

(to Mrs. Tourgee and) but you are a glowing enthusiast — just such an one as the world needs.

I believe in the project — I want it to go through and I will do all I can to show it along.

Yours truly
