Buffalo, N.Y. Feb 14th 1889

My dear Judge:

I am afraid that you misunderstand. The only reason why I would allow it for any other else is the fact that we are full. We had as much pleasure as you expect, in your visit but when our two spare rooms are occupied, we are helpless.

Shiman has just been in. He has seen Shuman S. Rogers & has interested him. He (Rigus) will come to the meeting.

E. C. Sprague, by the way, is very low.

I mean to see my friends personally & try to fix on early day next week. I think that we can conclude something at that meeting.

Yours truly

C. O. Shepard
