Judge Albion W. Tourgee,

Mayville, N. Y.

Dear Sirs- Your favor of Feb. 20th is received. Capt. Scofield correctly stated the case, and we are under obligations to him for his good word. We regret that, through oversight, the book was not forwarded to you, and beg your acceptance of the copy which we send under separate cover.

We would be pleased to open negotiations with you in regard to printing your history of the 105th O. V. I. and would ask particulars as to the size of the same, number of copies, character of illustrations, etc.

Awaiting your pleasure, we remain,

Yours truly,

THE CLEVELAND PRINTING & PUBLISHING CO.

W. M. Day,

Prest.
