Dear Mrs Fouger.

Received your letter this morning. wondered why you were so long answering.
We have had lots of snow here but it is nearly all gone now and today is beautiful and bright.
'Tis true, I have a husband and nice sweet little girls, but their presence only makes me more anxious to earn money so as to be ab to give them their education.
Mrs Moore is collecting money for Bennett College, at present, and will teach there next year. if nothing prevents. But I want to make a year's course at any rate at some music school so I may teach music in some school, possibly here at home. I believe I have some talent for music, but as long as I'm around home I cannot give the time to it I should in order to make it pay. Then there are other reasons for wishing to take lessons away from home before applying for any place. one is, namely incompetence. I never like to praise myself, but I can do almost any kind of work so the folks say. I can cook, wash iron and clean a house reasonably well, do a little fancy work. but my chief delight is music. Some folks like to listen to me sing. But Mrs. Moore discourages
