PROVIDENCE, R. I., March 7 1895.

Hon. A. St. Sawyer,

Dear Sir:

I presume it is useless to say that you have completed the organization of your editorial force for your new paper, but as I had an interview of your intended new publication I could not resist ~~the~~ take the liberty of writing you to consider an application from me for a position on your editorial staff. I have been in newspaper work for 20 years - previous to that in the mechanical department, rating as a good practical printer. My service there principally from with these papers, weekly and daily, have, begun under Mr. Frank A Randall on the Gazette. I have also served as City Ed and Tele Ed. of the Dispatch, and was recently was interested as a stockholder in the Daily Times. Perhaps you remember me as correspondent for a day upon the subject of your organization in behalf of full citizenship for the southern Black race which I was temporarily filling the position of Editor of the Times.

Now I am the dramatic and musical editor, but am dissatisfied, because the position means nothing more than that of an ordinary reporter, except that there is a pile of additional work thrown upon my shoulders without adequate compensation.

As to my capabilities I refer you to Frank A. Crandall of Buffalo, my managing editor of the Daily Express and Courier, and now, I believe, connected with the News; also to Gen. F. H. Severance, editor of the Illust. Express.

I hope it is not too late, and that you will consider my application favorably. I don't know how you intend to organize your force of course, but if There is no place of any sort I can mention, I will be glad to undergo the necessary examination, submit examples of my work or refer you to those who have been associated with me.

Very truly Yours,
