Buffalo 4/ Mar. 5th 1895.

dear Judge

I have yours of yesterday.

I feel that it will come out all right but the delay of papers is annoying. Mr Goodell has the subscription papers & I told them they must get $1000.

Again Alexander was called suddenly to Boston & will not be back until Thursday.

Shiem had taken his wife away & will not be back until Friday morning. I must go away on Thursday night & be back on Sunday.

The meeting must therefore go over until next week.

I fear that Alexander, Stacii Ramsdell & Grames will object to setting on before $5000.

My judgment is always against it. Let Mr. Reynolds work a little. They have done nothing so far. I guess that Mr. Markstrand that we all depends upon them.

Yours

Chapman
