for it, and will no doubt enjoy the pictures. I hope you are better, perhaps entirely well.

Please tell your father that I have only been waiting for the final number of the Cosmopolitan with the concluding portion of "the Thousand" to make him two much, I have enjoyed his story.

Our winter things are coming, and we will be quite ready for cold weather. We enjoy our pleasant rooms and I am very glad that I decided to stay here during the winter. Please remember me kindly to your mother, and accept for yourself, my dear Edward, the best wishes of

Yours sincerely,

Carrie Blunk.
