PERRY-PAYNE BUILDING.

My dear Judge

As I am thinking up at the accumulated rubbish since my return home has presented an earlier acknowledgment of receipt of the Autographed Basis and also of your letter of 23d. I have only read enough of the Basis to note that you have given promise of things to come and taken upon yourself a labor that will tax your energies to the fullest

Steel - Let me pray that the "back may be fitted for the burthen" and that you will come up Smiling 52 times a year. I mean a pretty good guess when I thought Uncle Noah could not feel able to bear the expense of Capt Masons picture. He has been Compelled to pay of late that Kind of Poor tax which Came of Standing Surety for some one else besides conveying a Living for Children & grown Children out of the farm. I believe Sam has finished the Map & possibly already sent it to you. I think it will done for a first attempt and I hope it may do Strike you. If you do not like it after the photo. mine is done with it I would be glad (unless you want it yourself) to have it back. To day is Spring and I am looking forward to approaching Summer when you and Jane Can Come & See us - because all this I want another such Sleep as I had last Summer in your house - provided to furnish my own night Shirt as on last Visit.

I have not as yet learned much benefit from the creek I have an Olympic water diet at C— although I got rested a little and love the pleasant recollection of having done just as I pleased for 7 days.

I did not even have either to talk to or look at anyone who was disagreeable to me and I got along finely.
Tom from Dr Flood of Meadville was there — radiant with Chautauquan smiles and apparently forgetful of the stinging defeat he suffered two years ago at the hands of Rainbow Libby — He was averse to discussing the purity of the ballot as well he might be.
Take a day off & come down Yours Truly
Allen Robbins
