SILVER CREEK, N. Y. March 31 1895

Hon A. [illegible],

My dear [illegible]

I am with great pleasure [illegible] received the [illegible] basis. I have read every word of it [illegible] enjoyed it, and agree with almost every sentiment. I cannot say what I think about the [illegible] [illegible], but at any rate the paper is delightful, fresh and inspiring as a salt sea breeze, so different from its early origin. Long life and great prosperity to the Basis, and to its genial and myriad minded editor.

Please accept kindest regards to yourself and family.

Sincerely
