Hon. A. W. Tourgee
Dear Sir:

Father sent to you by mail yesterday the Chattanooga map which I trust you have already received. I wish you would look it over carefully and see if I have omitted any of the essential details. If I have done so, it will be but little work to add them. As to erasing anything already drawn, I find that it is an entirely different matter for it leaves the surface of the bristol board quite rough.

As to the remuneration I leave that to your own judgement. The work on the map took 44 hours, but I worked pretty to have it based on its value to you rather than to myself.

I hope that the map will be satisfactory and will bear reproduction.

Sincerely Yours
