Utica N.Y. Apr 1 — 1895

My dear Judge I am still here, I got home late Saturday, hurriedly glanced at your letter — saw many people waiting for me Saturday night and Sunday and returned here Sunday at 4 P.M. Today I have been in Court all day. I shall be here until Thursday. Saturday I shall be in New York again + I told Sliter he could call a meeting in my office for 4:30 Thursday — As I read your letter it would, or might, leave me liable as partner + that would not do — I am ready to lend as I said, + You are right about "The Basis", it is yours and you should keep control + I think you misunderstood

Shepard and he you & He is dead you know & He nurses well—I have not seen him since you were all at my house— I hope the prospects of The Basin continue good & But good or bad I will keep my word so near as I can—As for others I am willing to do all I can for you but I have no time to do much—
I write in haste with clerks waiting for a consultation
With best wishes to the good wife, daughter and sister
Truly yours
