Hon. Emerson C. Fuller
Circuit Court of Appeals
Cincinnati, Ohio.

Mobile, April 5th/895

My dear Judge:

I am very sorry to find a chance to write to you for the past two weeks, but it has been impracticable. My Lectures work has steadily increased & now occupies all my time day & night. I started in July determined to have a rest & recreation & if possible be near the 2nd or 3d before then any two that I can call my own I have a lot of things to say to you & should like to say that your argument in the Cotton case has not changed my opinion a particle. I don't propose to try to change your mind & I am sure that you will appreciate my motive in life to have that relation I and ask my Master to help & guide me in that Duty as my Father & Friend & my Victim & Savior -

for it is still my earnest prayer & unabated Trust & must that I am Your ever faithful Friend
