SILVER CREEK, N. Y., April 8 1895

Honorable J. H. Bourge,
Dear Sir. —

This is a literary society in our town of which I am a member and as each one is required to contribute an evening or some other I was given an evening with "Bourge".

In looking up a sketch of your life I found several briefs but as I desired something a little fuller I thought perhaps you might be able to give me some book or magazine where I can find a good sketch.

I would not take moment of your valuable time but if you can do this, without it being too much trouble, I shall be very much obliged.

I wish to congratulate you on your new magazine, the Basis, & think it is a splendid thing and am glad that I was can lea from you often through it.

Hoping you are all well

I am sincerely yours,

Emily B. Baker.
