Dear Judge:— Yours at hand this morning enclosing subscriptions and explanations in regard to initials which I will attend to. There were 10 subscriptions in this morning's mail — four from the city.

We are all ready to make up as soon as proof comes and we get copy for the other four pages which divided your about Saturday night.

There is an article on your desk "Legislative Reform", but you said nothing about it so have not touched it. Everything that you hung on the hook is up.

We will want an extra num-
