My Dear Judge:

I am going to prepare an article on Mrs. Howe's "Battle Hymn," for the Literary Digest. You may have noticed that we have commenced a Compen-

dents' Corres.' may I, in the issue following the publication of the article on the Hymn, publish, in that connection, the part of your late letter to me which refers to the poem — your opinion of it? Then,
following your letter,
I shall have one
from Dr. Daniel S.
Gregory, who views
the Hymn quite differently from you. I want to start a correspondence on the subject, commencing with your letter. Prof. W.
C. Wilkinson, of the University of Chicago, will also give his opinion. You will be in good company. I trust you will permit me to read the letter.

Sincerely your friend

John A. Bowes.
