Raleigh, N. C., June 21. 1895.

My Dear Judge.

C. H. Upchurch died in Henderson Co. N.C. brought here, and was buried here yesterday. Said to have been of "galloping consumption;" a veritable saint gone to his rest, according to the priests and prostitutes of the Press. I suppose in point of fact that he has galloped off to the Devil - where he belonged, and regret that he delayed so long.

Maybe it would be well to send me a power of attorney to prosecute and collect, what do you think of it?

Kindest regards to Mrs L.

Very truly yours.

A. W. Shaffer.
