St Paul 7/5. 1895.

My Dear Judge

The words of a good man penetrate all places. The enclosed slip written "behind the bars" contains a handsome compliment to you and I know it will do you good to know that even in our State Prison you are known and respected as a lover of all classes of our fellow men — God bless you for the good you have done and may He spare you many years to continue your noble work in the progress of

Your friend
