"Worth twice the money it costs."—Judge.

KATE FIELD'S WASHINGTON

39 Corcoran Building, Washington, D. C.

This is from the Editorial Department.

TWO DOLLARS A YEAR FIVE CENTS A COPY.

July 19 '95.

Dear Mrs. Sources: I threw myself on the mercy of the court. The enclosed explains the circumstances. I had not time to read your attractive book until 2 o'clock A.M. to-day. Then I was beyond my power to publicly notice it. Accept my thanks and regrets and believe me with kind regards to your husband,

Yours Sincerely,
Kate Field

I start for Hawaii tomorrow.

CHAUTAUQUA COUNTY NY HISTORICAL SOCIETY