Thursday Night -

Dear Uncle Elmer -

Your letter reached me last week - but I was not as yet sent the list. Payment was owing on the one I sent but in a few days I shall have a revised list which I will send. I think the last way will be by express. It will be furnished on that yellow paper - all ready for cutting up & pasting is this happiness. If it is not terrible at all. If that it - as it would be from a real person - it was through with pleasure.

If I didn't know whether the other part of my letter was impracticable or not, but I do hope something may come of the idea of the visit.

If you are over-worked, it seems to Lord Bradley that Aunt Phebe is learning us.

and that we know that it is so.

Tell her I send love - trust it might be health and strength.

Have all well - and success for Mamma - Has written Mattie - here is family circle!

Love from

Grace A. Hall-

Forwarded.
