CHARLES F. KINGSLEY, PRESIDENT. F. C. B. HELD, SECRETARY GEORGE REMBAUM, TREASURER

The Enquirer Co.

509 MAIN STREET,

Editorial Room . . . Buffalo, Aug. 4, 1895.

Hon. A. W. Tourgee,

Mayville, N. Y.,

Dear Judge:

I returned from my vacation last week and I have been considering the matters upon which we talked. I did not know but perhaps you would be in town this last week but they said at the office on Washington St. they did not expect you. Do you think to be in this week? If not perhaps it would be well for me to run out to Mayville to see you.

I have had a conversation with Mr. Kingsley, the president of The Enquirer company, and if it seems desirable I think probably it could be so arranged that I could divide my time between The Enquirer and The Basis. In case of such an arrangement of course we would need to have further conference. I do not see my way clear to undertake any financial responsibility myself in connection with a local edition of The Basis but so far as my services are concerned, if we should make an arrangement as indicated, I think I could get along on little or nothing in the way of remuneration for a time if there were a prospect of profits later on in which I would be interested.

I have been exceptionally busy in connection with The Enquirer this week but a few ideas have occurred to me which I will speak of when I see you. I learn that there is a weekly commercial but I have had no talk with Mr. Warren as yet and would prefer if possible to wait until I know better what to say. I intend to see some of the real estate men this week. Hoping that you are in better health,

Yours truly,

Edward H. Brad
