My dear Nieces, All of you, I am going to make one letter do for the whole four of you Hoping Angie & Lodie will be on hand for their portion, I hope you are quite cured of your troublesome catarrh this time, dear Lodie, be careful through, not to take cold.

I'm so glad dear Angie, that you are well, & can help to lighten some of Emmas burden to wait on the dear invalid, What a comfort her sisters must be to her during her long illness, knowing as she does, that theirs is truly a labor of love.

CHAUTAUQUA COUNTY NY HISTORICAL SOCIETY 2015

Thank you so much, My Dear Emma, for your Kind Letter, written too, when you had so much on your mind & hands, No wonder you have lost in weight, I am thankful your hold out so well. If I were only near you, I could sometimes give you a helping hand, My health is perfectly good, & with moderate use, my strength stands me in hand very well, unlike most people of my age, I have not formed the habit of taking an afternoon nap, I feel better without it, when I'm well, I am always does, has for many years, she is a victim to a good many ailments thought, that I never had, which accounts for the necessity. She is as well as usual a present, Ida has been using "Our Native Herbs" for Muscular Rheumatism, Ills a Blood & Nerve Tonic, Blood Purifier & Liver Regulator.
It is wonderful what such a simple thing can do, as it has proved in a number of cases here I'll give the address.

I'd like Judge to give it a fair test Dr Grip is apt to leave one in a critical state, & this remedy has in many cases been a sure remedy. It might also be efficacious in your case, My dear Millie, You having had Grip too, am so sorry you are not improving, as the summer came on, which I hoped would get you up again, & Make you strong enough to

P. S. Thanks for "Bacon," which comes regularly, & is regularly read as to spiritual food. Lydia, I cannot tell you of the deep interest & kind feelings with which your daughter Charlotte writes her letters. I am pained to hear of your illness & trials & sorrows & his two daughters Lina Rena — Edgar Sammy & Robbie are all well, Dayan in N. Y.

come to Calyganna last winter, you have our warmest love & sympathy in your long illness, I assure you, I'm truly thankful for the kind loving care of your sisters, for you. Yes, as you said in your last letter to me, it was a mercy your strength was spared to take care of your mother in her last illness, as you know so well just what suited her best.

May the dear Lord bless you & give you strength & patience to abide his will.

Jane joins me in love to all of you.

Lovingly yours,

S. Skelley
