A. W. Tourgee - Mayville, N.Y.

Dear Sir.

Since you left Kingsville Ohio, and entered the army I have kept track of you as well as I could with the opportunities I have been blessed with. Have always been interested in your writings. and am yet. The last of your writings that I have read and one that interested me much, was "The Story of a Thousand." in the Cosmopolitan. A Copy of the Basis. No 1 - 20 March, has just found its way to my reading table, which I have examined pretty thoroughly and must say it met a responsive echo in my heart. and I feel like helping to uphold your hands in this grand effort.

Please send me a late number that I may know just what to do, as I wish to become a subscriber any way, and perhaps a stockholder, if your plans are now carried on as set forth in the number which I have.

Perhaps you may not remember me, but you undoubtedly have not forgotten my brother Walton, as he worked for your father years ago when I was quite a small boy.

Very Respectfully Yours,

H. C. Rundell.
