Dear Sir!—

Having learned of your attitude toward the poor, and those who are trying to make something of themselves, I thought I would write and ask you a favor. It is this: I have long desired to get a commercial education, and am willing to work in order to secure it. Therefor I want to ask you could, or would, get me a place where I might work part of my time, and take a course in Bryant's and Stratton's Business College.

I am a printer by trade, At present am serving in above name college press office.

Now if you will do this for me I will be under many, many, yea a thousand obligations to you. Find enclosed an addressed and stamped envelopes for reply.

Very truly yours, J. P. Blackwell
