EDITOR & PROPRIETOR.

Darby, Pa., Aug 29th 1895

My dear Judge

I've just had a chat with your friend Rev J. L. Russell who is now pastor of our Presbyterian Church here. He was saying that the chances were that you would visit Darby soon. I want therefore to express my delight at the prospect of seeing you, for nobody comes to Darby without dropping in the Progress office and you surely will be curious, at least, to see what progress I am making. I have'nt seen a copy of The Basis, worked like to. Will mail you a copy of Progress to-morrow and you can see by my editorial what I think of the compromise that has again given Quay the reins. I often wish while trying to fight down Cameronism & Quayism that I could borrow your pen for awhile.

I learned of your recent visit to Ocean Grove after you had gone I regret it very much.

Yours faithfully
Albert Magnin
