My dear Judge:

Herewith I send you my initial contribution to The Baby. I have made it but one page long, & have touched it in the easy, breezy fashion of a letter, yet never unmindful of the real, objective point, cropping out here & there in letter close.

If it should jibe well with your conveniance, I would like it to see the light of day and the blackness of printers ink in the issue of Sept 21; for I shall be so day-& night busy in Sept. that I fear, I cannot make another contribn during that month. But after that, I shall hope to send a double page installment for each 1st & 3d week's issue of each month.

And yet if much more consonant with your plans to publish my first on Sept 14, let me know promptly and I'll make a desperate dash for Sept. 25. That would make subsequent batches due for 2d & 4th Fridays' issue of each month.

Awaiting your further pleasure, and any suggestions

Sincerely Yrs.
