PERRY-PAYNE BUILDING.

My dear Dodge

The map arrived to day and I regret to say Vom is absent getting a little practical education in the Laboratory at our blast furnaces. Will not return until next week and then goes into Laboratory at Case School and will not have time to do Map work you want. Can you wait yourself of the plate from which he enlarged this one. It is contained in the book known as "Battles & Leaders of the Civil war" published by the "Century magazine Co." I am sorry you were so late making your wishes known. Else would have undertaken the job earlier. We have a two weeks Vacation - then private class in Chemistry for 6 weeks - and now after two weeks rest gone to work again. Have not you any copy? I have not heard from you since I last heard you between the "Sherry & Champagne" at the Hollenden where I appeared with a proxy badge in a farmers costume. Of course I have "The Brain" coolly and steadily how busy you are and do not expect much in a private way. Things are going better with us and while I have expected to either take in the D.A.R. at Savannah next week or the Chattanooga later I can't see no way to do it Are you going?

The Madame asks to be remembered to you kindly and to learn when we shall see you again as well as the wife and daughter. My kindest regards to them both and I hope the Sister is better —

Yours Truly
