My dear Eldred:

I was glad to hear from you once more.

The enclosed circular will give you the rates of reading advertising in the spaces on the cover. Should you take any, let me arrange the matter for you. I have a genius for stunt and one reads few words do more in an "ad" than most men.

I am putting the rates down to almost nothing, but it is fair that an advertiser who begins with us should have every advantage of minimum of value. I have no doubt the rate will be trebled within a year.

I did not expect you would get [illegible] orders from the east. That you have done so shows the unusual value of our advertising.

By the way, I am just patenting something in your line, to wit: a tether post, which turns around with a breath; gives fifty feet range; always keeps the tether rope taught, so that an animal cannot get tangled in it; can be worked by a pumping or a goat; is simple and cheap in construction; has a combined water bucket and fodder attachment; can not be pulled up or broken over by horse or bull; and can be shifted from one place to another in five minutes. Everybody who has seen it says there is a lot of money in it; a boy can & think any fall there is a good pocket-full to be made out of it.

Don't you think you want to take hold of it? Manufacture and sell? I will let you ~~for #1000 half~~ interest in the patent for $1,000, ~~the patent~~ and a page ad in and furnish a permanent "ad" in the Semi ~~the Basis~~ you manufacture of a half-page or page;
and sell and we divide ~~2 to 1~~
will divide ~~2 to 1~~
~~you~~. What do you think?

If you are inclined that way, I will send you a sample as soon as I get some castings made.

I venture the assertion that there never was as great an economic marvel as it has been. What I cannot pay for I do without, or use a little more gray brain matter in= stead. If I can raise by hook or by crook, a little for spe= cial advertising this fall, I think it will be over the rapids in fine style before ~~it's first birthday~~ the first anniversary of its birth.

Good luck to you

Yours
