Thursday

dear Judge

I have your 7th & 8th. I have talked with a few men and they accede to a bonus of any kind.

One man said — "You "won't find many who "will take less than "a bonus for an "uncertainty. The "Judge is a very

"gifted man but rather
"low sanguine".

I have failed to get men together during this busy week - when one could, another could not - so it will be next week. I will write a telegram so that I can come down
in time to see Mr Mc Donald before
the meeting. He wishes it. & I think it best.

I will do my level
best but the scheme
must not be handicapped

I am of opinion, from the different conversations, that the only bonds
you owned be able to become owned by you
along as editor.

I am very frank
with you.

Sincerely Yours

C. O. Shepard
