Westside, Miss. January 9th, 1896.

Judge Albion W. Tourgee,

Mayville, N. Y.

Dear Sir:- I am a constant reader of your writings and I so admire them that I write to ask you if you will discuss this subject for me: The New South, and the Negro's Possibilities Therein.

I would like a 45 minute discussion of it in that eloquent style, characteristic of Judge Tourgee, which would be suitable for lecture purposes here in Miss. to Negro boys and girls.

Of course, this is strictly confidential - no publicity to be made of this correspondence in any way.

Please write me at once if you will prepare the article, and your charges for so doing.

I am a subscriber to the Basis, and like it very much indeed.

With best wishes for your success in your many undertakings, I am

Yours truly, C. A. Broadnax.
