My Dear Friend

The notice of call night came the next day after I wrote, I see the date is the same I think I told you that I did not read those notes Pamela danced the papers & showed me the place for my name Every time I learn of her that I care any more & soon as he put the papers in his pocket he went handing me the money I spurned there was a trap & when I asked to see those papers at the Office I was told that I could not see them

My first thought was to get the money if I could, Pamela had stepped out before the draft was made Fritz asked me if he should take the account out I said I want the draft just two thousand & when I got that in my fingers I drew one good long breath You know it would seem a little risky to disputed the account before I got the money I have done that since I am sorry to trouble you with this Pamela affair & would gladly battle it sturdily myself if I was able to do it for I think the case requires attention the sooner settled I was not able to write when I got your

I had real grip at first & then neuralgia set in 4 days I was really blind Yesterday was the first I could have the bandage off today I am much better Of course my shattered nerves are not very strong so please excuse pencil & dear Jane to you all.
