Tidioute, Pa., April 14 1896

Dear Judge Longuemire:-

Yours of 17th inst came during one of my absences. I returned home "sick-a-bed" and am today about my room again attending to some of my letters.

I write ask Miss Kilbourne, if I can, to dispose of her stock - Have no idea when there is a market but will investigate.

I am not likely to go far from the house this week - Grip - and a miserable variety of it, too;

Yours truly
A A Cumings.
