Hon A. A. Lowry
My dear Sir;

I am in great business stress, and can not find time to write as I wish to do. — I have the estate left me by my brother Judge Moore, but property is not money. — To speak candidly, it is this. — You know the position of Rep. in S.C. The same bitterness that was hurled upon brother, seems now visited upon myself & sister, two quiet inoffensive women, who are surely without political influence, and can not count it time any — the would about $4000.00, I can give good security.

Judge, is there no good man of means within your acquaintance who will help us. In Fools Errand, you clearly showed your strength. Next time for us. Could I get a good price for Theodosia Burr's copper portrait
In other words, I know where the portrait is,
with confession of the Pirate who left her by the plank for execution after the vessel was looted.
It was captured near where I spent 17 summers, & was in possession of a family living there.
I can give enough reliable data of Theodosia to make a good novel.

Then what can I get for a pen which signed Articles of secession of one of the Southern States.

Please let me hear from you promptly.
Yours Truly

Dr. Gadsby Lake do kindly for me. You know where wealth is, do do by I help me this this election, after which time, I hope business will be more active.
