Hon. Honorable,

A. W. Tourgee,

Mayville, N.Y.

My dear Sir,

As we have heard nothing from our Client re Lg. — I make bold to write & ask you whether your engagements have brought about a temporary irrecollection about the matter which you mentioned just as you were leaving. We know of course no occasion to complain of our clients, but as our intercourse with them has been through you, we thought that we might be excused if we enquired to know whether they have been notified as to the $274.56 (including charges for printing of brief) which is now due to us.

We have not yet heard anything about the Case. Indeed, as you might guess, we never do, until some Judge has read for a minute or two upon his Opinion!

I hope that you are quite well & happy, — and that Mrs Tourgee & Miss, are so also.

Yours very truly

S. F. Phillips
