9135A

ARMORY A. & H. A. COMPANY OF MASSACHUSETTS,
FANEUIL HALL, BOSTON, May 22, 1896.

GENERAL ORDERS NO. 3.

I. In accordance with Article V., paragraph 1, of the Rules and Regulations, this Company will parade on Monday, June 1 next, to celebrate its two hundred and fifty-eighth anniversary.

II. The members of the Company not otherwise specified will report at the Armory, in full-dress uniform with white gloves, at 7.30 o'clock A. M.

III. The commissioned staff will report to the Commander at the Armory, at 8.30 o'clock A. M.

IV. The honorary staff will report to Capt. Jacob Fottler, Chief-of-Staff, in the Library room of the Armory, at 8.30 o'clock A. M. Past Commanders, the Finance Committee and Committee of Arrangements are invited to parade on the staff of the Commander.

V. The non-commissioned staff, general guides, color-bearers, markers and orderly, in full uniform and white gloves, and the band and field music, will report to the Adjutant, at the Armory, at 8.00 o'clock A. M.

VI. Sergt. F. B. Wentworth is hereby detailed to command the veteran company, which will be placed in rear of the infantry. No member will be allowed to parade in this company without a certificate from the Surgeon or Assistant Surgeon that he is incapacitated from carrying a rifle.

VII. Battalion line will be formed on South Market Street, at 9 o'clock A. M., prompt. Infantry wing will have the right of line as usual. Members wearing the uniform adopted for the trip to London may parade as infantry, or in the artillery wing carrying sabres. Sergeants will previously form their respective companies under the direction of the First and Second Lieutenants, — the infantry wing in the Armory, the artillery wing in the Produce Exchange, — based on the formation of twelve files front, exclusive of guides. Sergeants will deliver to the Adjutant, on blanks furnished by him, a complete list of names actually parading in their companies.

VIII. The attention of members is called to the By-Laws, as to uniforms, which reads: "Sect. 3. Members who are, or have been, connected with other military organizations, may at all parades wear their respective uniforms; and no member shall wear any insignia of office to which he is not entitled by virtue of a commission or warrant. Insignia of rank attained by membership in veteran organizations will not be recognized or allowed in the ranks of this Company."

IX. Lieut. E. P. Cramm is hereby detailed Officer of the Day, and will report to the Commander for instructions.

X. Capt. Edward E. Allen will report at the State House, as personal escort to his Excellency the Governor.

XI. Capt. Wm. Hatch Jones and Lieut. W. P. Jones are hereby detailed as flankers to the Commander-in-Chief.

XII. Major George S. Merrill and Major Chas. G. Davis are hereby detailed to take charge of the invited guests, and will report at the State House at 9 o'clock A. M.

XIII. Invited guests will report to Major Merrill, at the State House, at 9 o'clock A. M.

XIV. The following detail is announced for duty at the church: Lieut. W. L. Shearer, in charge, Lieut. Emery Grover, Lieut. C. C. Adams, Lieut. F. H. Mudge, Mr. Cyrus J. Hatch, Sergt. Wm. F. Bacon, Capt. Thos. L. Churchill, Lieut. Isaac D. Dana, Sergt. F. J. Hutchinson, Mr. H. C. Woodbury, Mr. E. G. Foster, Mr. Frank B. Riedell, Mr. Lyman Boynton, Capt. Wm. H. Gwynne and Robert H. Upham. This detail will report to Lieut. W. L. Shearer at the church, at 8.30 A. M., prompt, and to Lieut. E. P. Cramm, the Officer of the Day, at headquarters tent, on Boston Common, at 4 o'clock P. M. Orderly W. H. Robertson is detailed for special duty at headquarters, and will report to the Commander at 8.30 A. M.

XV. Sergt. John B. Patterson, Capt. Henry W. Downes, Capt. J. Henry Brown, Sergt. William H. Lott, Sergt. Jacob Bensemoil, Sergt. William H. Mitchell, Sergt. Geo. Lyman Look, Major Joseph W. Sawyer, Sergt. William Tyner, Sergt. Benjamin W. Rowell, Sergt. Louis A. Blackinton, Sergt. Fred M. Purmort, are hereby detailed to assist the anniversary committee during the exercises after dinner in Faneuil Hall, and will report to Capt. J. Henry Taylor, chairman, and Lieut. E. P. Cramm, Officer of the Day, for instructions, immediately after the banquet.

XVI. The Commander desires that members having continental uniforms will wear them, and parade in the color company, and that all members participating shall pay strict attention to the orders of the day, and will observe that military discipline and decorum which is essential and becoming to us as soldiers and members of the most ancient and honorable military body on this continent.

By order of

JOHN C. POTTER,
Adjutant.

THOMAS J. OLYS,
Captain.