FORDS, HOWARD, & HULBERT, PUBLISHERS,
No. 47 East 10th St., New York.

Feb. 18, 1897

Dear Mrs

I send what I send [illegible] of Cattain's arrival, of Allen, &c.
No trace of Thomas Edwards in the Am. Catalogues.
I have written to Dodd Mead & & Scribners about it & about Dixon & Hale. Will report.
About the Cutter's list
I have given Abbott, Mabie, & Shaw. I note you about them
By me all my kindest & appreciation of you, & object as Princess Hélène and such little Creole has dipped it. Johnston I don't know anything about for many years: he is not in N.Y. but either in Cleveland or Woodstock Ask Horace Porter & [illegible] he may be little Woodford "not dying any letters just now" but rooting for cts.! I send the letter as it is. It would be hard & treat the few names that are on it, anyhow. If you know of any one else send it back & I'll go for 'em. (Wells & Co. think out of the question, unless you know him personally. You & he are at opposite poles — Equity & Republicans!

Bobbie's Bday so near on, and I will leave a general list for "Miscellaneous" — or, as Mr. Venus has it, "Human Warious."

Wish you good luck with the Syndicate. I suppose it's too late now for Xmas

Yours truly,

R. M.

CHAUTAUQUA COUNTY HISTORICAL SOCIETY