Mrs. Emma K. Tourgee,
Mayville, N.Y.

Dear Madam:-

I have tried all the leading dailies in the Twin Cities with your proposition, but they either do not use stories or are supplied for the present and, I think, too poor to buy, as the newspaper business has been in desperate straits in the Northwest.

Regarding the Judge's matter, I have written Major McKinley and have induced several friends, including Col. Liggett who knows him personally, to write to him in the Judge's behalf. I hope he may win. The Judge ought to have recognition and I hope he will get it.

The family are all right. The namesake is a hearty girl of four years, a perfect tomboy, rides a pony, or walks on snow-shoes as well as a boy of eight. All the family remember you and the Judge kindly and hope that you may some day turn your faces this way, with the daughter Amie with you.

Respectfully yours,

A. G. Milne
