Editorial Department — Dansville, N. Y.

The Dansville Advertiser

5 March '97

Mrs. B. K. Bourgeois

Maysville Mo.

Dear Mrs. Bourgeois:— Your favor reached me this morning during our stay at the sunset sea, & the daughter charmingly beautified it, but by your thoughtful kindness came the exceeding pleasure of perusal this week. It is the most fascinating book I have read for many a year. When I am famous, I shall be read Mr.
Wheeler's wonderful romance

The Judge & Mrs is in the sharp pneumonia stage — I met a Canadian Chief who had a charming carriage & horses & his daughter the handsomest & highly bred Indian girl I had ever seen dressed entirely in Buckskin trimmed with beads & porcupine quills & her stockings & moccasins daughters. Paul & Jim Mason, Lewis Perry & Walter Hatch camped & spent much time with us & with Mason & Perry we made an excursion to the Cascades for a ride there & back.

Thus far & write by myself, with my thanks & regards. Paul & Mrs Mason & Lewis remember kindly to them. I am pleased to learn from all as my friends

Sincerely &c. C. A. Burnett