Indianapolis. March 17. 1897

My Dear Judge.

Forgive delay in not replying to your note. I assume you
It was not from indisposition.
If I were President I would be glad of the opportunity presented by your application to make return. Though in small measure, for the great services you have continuously rendered the Republican party.

I shall watch the outcome
with the greatest interest.

Wishing you well, believe me most truly,

Your Friend,

Lew. Wallace.
