

9292

EDITORS' ROOMS
AMERICAN BOOK COMPANY
WASHINGTON SQUARE
NEW YORK CITY

April 8th, 1897.

Hon. Albion W. Tourgée,

Mayville,

N.Y.

Dear Sir:-

We have under consideration, for publication, a School Reader composed partly of original articles and partly of selections from several prominent authors on subjects concerning Pennsylvania; it is intended only for use in Pennsylvania schools and its circulation will therefore be very limited. The compiler wishes to include in this book your "Dan Periton's Ride," giving you credit as author, of course. Would you object to its insertion? An early reply will greatly oblige,

Respectfully yours,

AMERICAN BOOK COMPANY,

S. A. Torrance

Enc. 20/97