

9295

The Inter Ocean.

Chicago, April 12, 1897.

Hon. A. W. Tourgee,

Mayville, N. Y.

My Dear Judge:--

Your note of the 8th was received on Saturday. Mr. Nixon telegraphed Mr. Platt warmly and at length in your favor. I certainly hope it will do you a great deal of good. Nobody knows just exactly what is the matter with Chicago. It is about enough whatever it is. One thing about which not very much is said is that the Republican leaders of two factions have been waiting for two years to have it out with each other. They went in with hammer and tongs, the one faction knifing the other in every ward.

Yours truly,

Wm. H. Busbey.

Managing Editor.

April 22, 1957

*Alger
Thank you to see this about me
the morning by the judge
A. H. J.*

Hon. A. W. Tourgee.

Wayville, N.

My Dear Judge:--

Your note of the 8th was received on Saturday. Mr. Nixon telegraphed Mr. Platt warmly and in length in your favor. I certainly hope it will do you a great deal of good. Nobody knows just exactly what is the matter with Chicago. It is about enough whatever it is. One thing about which not very much is said is that the Republican leaders of two factions have been waiting for two years to have it out with each other. They went in with hammer and tongs, the one faction knitting the other in every way.

Yours truly,

Wm. H. Burley.

Managing Editor.