Dear Judge

Yours with Bk rec'd and notice has been sent on to Lowdermilk (U.S. Reports)

"The Man" did come back from the Outlook, and I send you their letter, which is appreciative, tho' they decided not to use the Story. In fact, I hardly expected they would, but sent it because Mr Howland the prop- was interested when I told him about it, & asked to see it.

I think perhaps they are right in suggesting that more be made of the N.Y. changes. They are right too about the latter part being less effective than the first; but after all it

it not easy to put one's finger On the spot for betterment. Perhaps now that it is "cold"
You can see for yourself where You can strengthen it.

If you send it back to me I will forward it to M. Clure (Never to me I did try it there, but will look it up or wherever you think best.
Anyway, it will make a nice little flyer in a small book for next winter. I see Munsey's Mag. is picking up in interior matter & its circ. is tremendous. That & Frank Leslie's are a few yet, anyhow.

You speak of a deed story for Lippincott's. Have you cut off the dragon's tale?
