War Department,
Office of the Secretary,
Washington.

April 21, 1897.

Mrs. A. V. Sangér,
Mayville, N.Y.

Dear Madam:

After your call on the Secretary on Saturday last I found an umbrella on the table where you had been writing. If the umbrella belongs to you I will hold it subject to your wishes.

The Secretary directs that the inclosed letter be returned to you.

Very respectfully,
Fred C. Ainsworth
Private Secy.
