New Orleans La. May 12th 1897

Judge Albion W. Tourgee,
Mayville, N. Y.

Dear Sir—

This morning dispatches announced your nomination by the President of the United States as Consul to Bordeaux.

Your friends and admirers in Louisiana are deeply sensible of this recognition for your services to the party. Our only regret is that the appointment was not as Minister plenipotentiary to one of the foreign countries of which your talents and experience entitles you. The cause you have so ably and patriotically defended will lose
